Re: Fraud.

It has come to our notice that there is a group of fraudsters who are calling our parents in the name of Mengo Senior School teachers asking for payment for online teaching.

As a school, we are not charging any fees for our online teaching. All kind of work sent to our learners is free of charge and we disassociate ourselves from any such person who will be asking for money to offer any service during this lockdown season.

Take note: Mengo Senior School is not charging any fees for online teaching.

We wish you well as you keep with our learners in this lockdown. Stay safe!
